RUMSEY.

RUMSEY, KY., Dec. 15—Well dear readers did you know that a man could be too busy to write a letter?

That has been my condition lately or you should have heard from me sooner. The calls of business have occupied all of my time from four o'clock in the morning till nine at night lately and you can judge whether I was likely to feel like writing between these hours. Beside all this I have not much to write about but will try to scratch up a few lines.

The Rev. Atchison held a few days meeting here this week, but met with little success.

Green river is now in the possession of the National government and open for free navigation.

The preparations for our Christmas entertainment are progressing finely and we expect a good time. Our programme is a very complete one and does credit to Mr. J. H. Hays.

Our Sunday school superintendent, who is the instigator of it.

A merry Christmas to you all.

ROYER.

Happy Homes.

Here's a health to the wives and others.

Who sit in our households to-day.

Who are glad when letters from others

Reach them at their fireside.

The hours that are drifting away.

May their eyes keep the light of gladness.

May their hearts be the fulcrum of love.

That banishes shadow of sadness.

That need we ask more than this?

But—how can this happiness be kept? What shall protect those we love,—those who make a Heaven of Home,—from the ravages of disease that is often worse than death,—that is in fact, a lingering death? The question is easily answered: Dr.

Pierce's Favorite Prescription—the standard remedy for all of those peculia disease to which women are subject,—is what must be relied on to preserve the health of wives and mothers. It prevents those diseases and it cures them. It is a blessing, because it gives health to those about whom the happiness of home centers, and the strength of a nation is in its happy homes.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets, or Anti-bilious

Graugues, in vials, 25 cents; one a dose. Drugist.

Holiday Excursion Rates.

Mr. C. P. Atmore, general passen-enger agent for the Louisville &

Nashville, has directed ticket agents to sell tickets at the rate of "one and one third" limited to first-class fares for the round trip between all points on this line, to take effect Dec. 21 to 25, inclusive, tickets to be limited to

Jan. 3, 1889; also Dec. 29 to Jan. 1, inclusive, tickets to be limited to Jan.

5, 1889.

USEFUL FANCY WORK.

Conventional Embroidery Patterns Supplied by Ancient Design.

Of course different women "take to" different kinds of work, according to the motive power that impels them;

HIGHLAND OMENS.

Some of the Grooms Superstitious Pre-valing in the North of Scotland.

The belief in fairies and brownies, or the more playful and fanciful kind of fairy, seems to belong more to the Lowlands of Scotland than the Highlands. The character of the people was softer, and the lighter forms of superstitious belief found more fitting home there than in the Highlands, where the gloomy and austere character of the people led them to invest the supernatural inhabitants of their glens and mountains with something more akin to their own darker and sterner natures. Thus the fairies and brownies of the Lowlands take in the North the form of warnings, that come in gruesome guise to foretell misfortune and calamity to the family to whom they belong, and to whom they appear when danger or misfortune threatens their patrons. Every great and powerful family in the North was believed to have a supernatural warning or omen which appeared before the death of any prominent member. It varied in most cases, but each family of a clan generally received the same warning before death as the chief.

Very striking coincidences no doubt have occurred, quite important enough to convince a highly-superstitious people of the infallibility. Thus among the Mackenzies the death candle was always said to appear before the death of any leading member of any branch.

A large light appeared at some distance in the sky, sailing slowly till it arrived above the place where the person whose death it predicted lived, when it would slowly disappear in a brilliant conflagration of light. In Tulloch castle a cold hand was always said to be laid on the face of the person whose death it foretold. In another family a white owl always appeared when any member was going to die, and in another a black dog; while on the west coast of the Highlands an old woman, commonly called the "Grue-gach," appeared to foretell the death of some important member of the family to which she specially belonged.—Murray's Magazine.

LINES BY LAMPLIGHT.
BY CHATTELL.
And Christmas cheer has come again.
What can we do this day,
To bring some tired, old soul,
A brighter, smoother way?
From rugged paths, where briars grow,
Let's shield some tender foot—
And turn them from a life of gloom,
"Till make our Christmas sweet.
Can we not bear the magic words
To some poor troubled soul—
Lead gently to "Bethesda's pool,"
Where he can be made whole?
Oh! fainting heart be still, and know
His love is true, divine—
He knows our feet so bruised and sore—
Is greater, then, than this,
He often sends us sorrows deep,
That we may always know
How heavy the cross he bore for us,
How bitter life's cup of woe.
But left for us these dear old words,
"I'll not forsake or leave";
How can we doubt—what more ask—
Why should we stop to grieve?
"Bethesda's Pool" is near to all,
It pools the burning feet—
And near it bring the gift now lie,
Making "Christmas day" complete.
What if God wills that we should walk Through life's dark, dreary way,
The recompense is full and sweet,
That we shall find some day.
We may not understand the way
He leads your life and mine—
But we can trust his gracious hand
In these good "Christmas times."
HOPKINSVILLE, KY., Dec. 25, 1888.

CREAM OF THE NEWS.

The Fifth Avenue Hotel, Louisville.
Louisville has increased in population and is remarkable for its improvement in architecture. Its hotel accommodations have kept pace with the general advance. Jas. T. Richie, proprietor of the Fifth Avenue, situated scarcely 1 1/4 squares from the State and Federal Courts, and near the principal places of amusement, is up with the times and has recently refurnished this excellent place, in handsome style. For cleanliness and comfort it is not surpassed, and that is the great thing—the desideratum, we might say—in hotels, a thing desired, but seldom met with. We took a general view and inspection in detail of the Fifth Avenue the other day, and were surprised and pleased with the comfort and home-like appearance everywhere, from cellar to attic. The tables do not groan under the abundance, but would if they knew how, for there is plenty of well-cooked and well-served food in variety placed upon them to tempt the inner man. This hotel is pronounced to be the best $2 hotel on the continent, and we confess that it looks that way, for it seemed to us to be fully equal to many of the $3 houses where we have rested in our peregrinations.
K. of P. Lodge to be Organized.
Mr. Hanson Dulin, who recently removed to Springfield, Tenn., has been making an effort to organize a K. of P. Lodge at that place and his efforts have been crowned with success, as a Lodge will be organized on Monday night next, Dec. 31st, with probably fifty charter members. The Lodge will be known as Evergreen Lodge No. 53. R. L. C. White, of Nashville, Supreme Keeper of Records and Seals of the World will be the instituting officer on the occasion. This Lodge will be composed of the finest material of Robertson county and can not do otherwise than prosper. The members of Evergreen Lodge No. 38 (Ky.) are cordially invited to be present on the above grand occasion.
Anderson vs. Dabney.
The petition of A. H. Anderson asking Judge McPherson to order a new count of the city election returns and demanding that the certificate issued to F. W. Dabney, as Councilman, be issued to himself, was heard yesterday. Attorney Ferguson represented Anderson and Judge Petree appeared for Dabney. The Judge held that the Court has no authority to go behind the certified returns and that no court has such jurisdiction, excepting the Council itself acting as a contesting board. The plaintiff accepted and asked leave to amend the petition with a view of taking an appeal. In the meantime Mr. Dabney will enter upon his duties as Councilman next Tuesday.
A Long-Lost Brother Found.
Not long ago a patient named Nesmith was received into the Western Kentucky Lunatic Asylum from some of the neighboring counties. After he had been treated a while he became sufficiently sane to tell that he formerly lived at some point in Alabama. Correspondence was opened with the authorities there which resulted in bringing a brother of Nesmith here a few days ago to take him back home. The brother had not heard of him for two years and was rejoiced to find him. He had been wandering around over Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky most of that time in a demented condition. The meeting between the brothers was very affecting.
Bold Burglary.
The residence of Mr. William Johnson, in the northern suburbs, was entered by a burglar Saturday night. A window sash was removed and the intruder went through all of the rooms, taking three pocket-books belonging to Mr. Johnson and his sons, Marlow and Lee, who live with him. The aggregate cash taken was $18 and a lot of valuable receipts were also in the pocket-books. None of the family were aroused and nothing was known of the visit until the cold air coming in the window awakened the occupants of the house. No clue has been discovered to lead to the detection of the guilty party.
Big Turkeys.
Lou Minck shipped two turkeys to a friend in Brooklyn, N. Y., Friday, which weighed thirty-two pounds each, gross. When dressed the two weighed fifty-four pounds.
Mrs. Jno. R. Green, of Bellevue, sold to W. E. Ragsdale, last Friday, a dressed turkey weighing 26 lbs.
Religious.
All of the city churches held their usual services Sunday. For the first time in several weeks all of pastors were in their respective pulpits. The meeting at the Christian Church will continue throughout this week. About fifteen persons, so far, have united with the church.
Fatally Injured.
Henry Jameson, an old citizen of North Christian, fell from a wagon one day last week while in a fit and sustained very serious if not fatal injuries. Nothing has been heard from him this week.
Its Delicacy of Flavor.
And the efficacy of its action have rendered the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, immensely popular. It cleanses and tones up the clogged and feverish system, and dispels Headaches, Colds and Fever. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles.
Three farmers with their families, ten in all, left Simpson county last week to take up their residence in the Indian Territory.

THIS AND THAT.

Ross A. Rogers' livery stable, Fritz's old stand.
There was a large crowd from the country in town yesterday.
There will be a masquerade party at Mr. D. A. Tandy's this evening.
Hopkinsville Lodge 37, P. A. M., will meet at 6:30 p. m. on the 27th.
The small boys indulged in the first skating of the season last week.
Miss Carrie Breathitt has accepted a position as art teacher in Bethel Female College.
To-day being a national holiday, the post-office and public buildings will be closed.
Wiley & Parker have moved into their new building on the corner of Ninth and Clay Streets.
The County Teachers Association will hold its monthly session in this city on Saturday, Jan. 5th.
Mr. J. F. Garnett has let the contract for a fine new brick residence, near Casky, to Forbes & Bro.
Wm. Cornelius was fined $3 Friday for drunkenness, which he promptly paid with the usual trimmings.
The wife of Mr. W. L. Parker made him a nice Christmas present yesterday in the shape of a ten-pound boy.
Dr. R. E. Christian will shortly move into the room vacated by Gilliland & Kennedy, corner Ninth and Clay Streets.
The Sunday School children of the First Presbyterian Church will be entertained next Friday night in the lecture room.
Thompson & McReynolds have just received a large supply of fine rockers and other chairs for the Christmas trade.
A bill has passed Congress giving the Cairo & Tennessee River Railroad the right to bridge the Cumberland and Tennessee rivers.
"Peg-leg" Chas. Crutchfield, col., who was sent to the penitentiary in 1887 for a year for stealing, has served out his time and returned last week.
Henry Poindexter was tried before Esq. M. Jor, at Herndon, last week and held over under a $250 bond, for injuring cattle belonging to T. V. and P. D. Dawson.
The "Black Flag Co." repeated its Thursday night's performance on Friday night to a largely increased audience. It is a good show and Sam Lazarus is a "daisy."
A little four-year-old daughter of Dr. J. L. Dulin got lost yesterday and wandered out South Main Street as far as Maj. Breathitt's, nearly a mile from home before she was found.
The "Si Perkins Company" gave one of the best shows of the season Saturday night. The house was a good one and the performance was received with every evidence of approval.
All reports as to a probable change of proprietorship or management of South Kentucky College are without foundation. Prof. Sobey will continue at the head of the school as heretofore.
Send your orders to J. S. Brown, Springfield, Tenn., for pure Tennessee and Kentucky whiskeys and apple and peach brandies. Prices of whiskeys $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 and $2.25, according to age. Brandies $2 and $2.50.
Mr. W. T. Radford has placed 320 boxes of his fine Florida oranges on the local market and they are giving the greatest satisfaction. All of the dealers are handling them and supplying them to the retail trade at $3.25 per box.
There was never a prettier Christmas Eve seen in this latitude than yesterday and the prospects were that to-day would be equally as pretty. The weather has been clear and cool but delightfully pleasant for nearly a week.
The return engagement of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde will be played Thursday night the 27th. Those who saw this piece presented on the 18th will testify to its merit and to the excellence of the company of which Mr. Ober is the leading character.
C. R. Adams, of Beverly, has sold his crop of tobacco to the factory and is tying it in large bundles, using his twine binder for that purpose. The bundles are tied with twine and the machine is operated by a small boy. This is a new wrinkle in the tobacco business.
Maj. J. W. Breathitt and Hon. Jas. Breathitt returned the first of the week from a visit to Pineville, Bell county. Maj. Breathitt has six thousand acres of land near Beattyville for which he has refused $4.00 per acre. It is in that section of Eastern Kentucky now enjoying a genuine boom and is rapidly advancing in value.
The young ladies' society of the Ninth Street Presbyterian Church are preparing to give a sacred cantata entitled "Under the Palms," at the Opera House, about the 10th of Jan. It will be given in connection with the "Rainbow Reception." It has been given at several Eastern cities with great success and commands itself to all Christian people.
The West Point, Miss., Leader, has this pleasant mention of a young lady well-known in this city: "Miss Annie Kennedy, of Oxford, Miss., principal of the Union Female College in that city, was the guest of the family of Capt. Fred Beall during Presbytery. That she completely captured some of our people, goes without saying. Her loveliness and accomplishments were irresistible."

We notice from the Princeton Banner that the owners of Crittenden Springs are negotiating with Mr. Park A. Houston to manage their hotel next season. If they are so fortunate as to secure his services they will be indeed fortunate. Park has no equal as a manager of a watering place hotel in this whole section of country. His jolly, genial, social disposition, uniform politeness and courtesy and his many ways of entertaining and making himself agreeable to his guests whether in the office, ball-room or parlor, make him extremely popular with all who know him. He has had much experience in this business and the Crittenden Springs management may be congratulated if they secure his services for 1889.
At the regular meeting of the Casky Grange Friday, Dec. 21st, the following officers were elected for the year 1889: T. L. Graham, Master; R. F. Rives, Overseer; J. H. Williams, Lecturer; Tom Garnett, Steward; Mat Winfree, Assistant Steward; G. H. Winfree, Treasurer; Baker Radford, Secretary; C. F. Jackson, Gatekeeper; J. F. Garnett, Chaplain; Miss Belle Henry, Pomona; Miss Lida Garnett, Flora; Mrs. T. L. Graham, Ceres; Miss Sybil Stuart, Lady Assistant Steward; John Bogley, Business Agent.
The case of Lewis Phelps, charged with stealing a dog worth $50 from Geo. Steele, was dismissed last week, as there was nothing in the charge. The dog was found in his possession but there was no criminal intention in the matter. It was returned to its owner. Lewis is one of the most trustworthy and honorable colored men in the city and is very much mortified that so serious a charge should have been preferred against him. Mr. Steele declined to prosecute after hearing Lewis' statement.
Some of the farmers are selling their tobacco crops loose at from $4 to $5 round.
MATRIMONIAL.
Mr. T. Monroe Dalton, of the firm of Dalton Bros., and Miss Carrie Wiley will be married at noon to-day at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. G. W. Wiley, Rev. A. C. Bidde, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, will perform the ceremony. The young couple will take board at Mr. Wiley's.

When children gather in delight,
To fill the air with bubbles bright,
Of this let parents all be sure—
The soap they use is good and pure.
For common grease in some we find
With evil mixtures well combined.
That soon with burning sores will tell
On lips and tongue, and gums as well.

Let Ivory Soap, that's made with care
Of purest oils and essence rare,
Be used by those who bubbles blow
And greatest pleasure will they know.
Where soap is pure and fresh and clean,
While not a fear need cross the mind
Of bad results of any kind.

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory." Be NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the Ivory Soap. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

THE CLOVER MIDGE.

A Little Pest That Has Been Doing Considerable Damage.
For the information of some correspondents who have written to us on the subject, we take the following facts about this insect from Prof. Beal's work, "Grasses of North America." He says: This is not only the most alarming of clover pests; but may be regarded as one of the most dreaded insects now infesting the valuable crops of the United States. It not only does very serious damage, but is spreading with great rapidity. Prof. Lintner first discovered it in a limited area in Eastern New York. Now it is known to exist in Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ontario, Michigan, and all through New York. The fact that the insect may remain in the seed, and thus be carried with it any distance, adds to the dangers threatened by this comparatively new pest. The eggs are oval, pale yellow, and only 0.1 of an inch long. The larva or maggot varies from white to dark orange or orange-red. It is when full grown 1-12 inch long.

The pupa is orange with brown eyes. It is found in a cocoon, all of which with more or less earth sticking to it. The flies resemble closely the wheat midge. The abdomen is red, thorax brownish-red. The antennae are fifteen-jointed in the male and sixteen in the female. The wings are hairy, the palpi and ovipositor each four-jointed. The size varies, but the dark scales obscure the red color, so that the flies appear dark. Underneath the color is yellowish gray. As with the wheat midge and Hessian fly the ovipositor and claspers are very prominent. The eggs are pushed, by means of the ovipositor, into the heads of red or white clover, and lodged between the hairs that surround the separate florets. They are not glued nor placed in the florets. As with the Hessian fly, the eggs may be laid singly, or in groups of two, three, four or five. The larva, when hatched, is a small, white, grub-like creature, sometimes placed in a single head of clover. The larva affects each seed as much as does the wheat midge each wheat kernel.

After absorbing the life from the seed the larva, like the maggot of the wheat midge, leaves the seed and wriggles till it escapes from the clover head and falls to the earth. Often the head of the clover seems alive as a maggot pushes from nearly every seed in its effort to reach the ground. The pupa is found in its cocoon just beneath or upon the clover head, protecting leaf, etc. The flies have been seen in New York in May, August, and quite likely some flies may issue in October. Thus there are surely two broods in New York, and possibly three. There are certainly three broods south. The larva will be seen full grown in the seed at the North in May, in July, and again in September. They possibly pass the winter as pupae. Of late the larvae have been found in seed in the market. This is an unwelcome fact, and explains the rapid distribution of these insects. The only remedy suggested is to dip the seed in sulphur of carbon added. This will kill all the larvae past hatched. Even an open barrel, water-tight, may be used by placing a buffalo robe or other tight cover over it. The fact that this insect is as far west as Michigan, and possibly as far as Illinois, makes it a matter of general interest. In the future clover seed will be valuable.

The Gallant Democrat by C. R. Melcher and the Augusta Victor by W. E. Weldon, are the two latest additions to Kentucky journalism.

WE WANT TAYLOR'S SURE CHILL CURE to give entire satisfaction in all cases that it is recommended for, provided the contents of a bottle are used according to directions. For sale by H. B. Garner.

COUSIN'S HONEY OF TAR AND DR. TAYLOR'S PILE OINTMENT are good sellers with us, also WHITE'S CREAM VERRUPE. All appear to give satisfaction wherever used. For sale by H. B. Garner.

WHITE'S CREAM VERRUPE is the largest 25-cent bottle of medicine in the market, the dose being small, it is the cheapest. It is its own purgative, and does not require to be followed by the nauseous dose of castor oil or other purgative medicine. Full directions on every bottle. For sale by H. B. Garner.

D. S. Troutman, West Fork P. O., Reynolds County, Mo., writes as follows: "I sold one bottle of White's Cream Verrupe to my neighbor, Mr. Allen Moore. He gave the medicine to three of his children, and it brought them from their feverish condition to the friends of the medicine. I think, I will call attention to the friends of the medicine, and enemies to worms. I will send more of the Verrupe." For sale by H. B. Garner.
